

MAHATMA GANDHI

Teacher Guide for Extension Activities and Curriculum Connections

NCSS Themes connected to this lesson Themes

Time, Continuity and Change

People, Places and Environments

Individual Development and Identity

Power, Authority and Governance

Global Connections

NCSS – National Council for Social Studies

Extension Activities
Early	Middle	High
List the qualities that made Gandhiji special.	Identify the qualities of Gandhiji that you would like to have. Make a plan that demonstrates a course of action that can lead you to acquiring these qualities.	Develop a small group presentation (paper, wiki, blog or case study) in which you describe and analyze the qualities that made Gandhiji special
Make a graphic organizer of the different countries your classmates come from.	Use computer-based technology to present illustrations or essays about "The Caste System in India".	Conduct a survey using a sample representative of your high school about views on the caste system. Report your findings using a histogram.
Which rights are fundamental to humans in all parts of the world?	Interview people who have participated in a recent historical event and write a story based on these oral histories.	Evaluate historic developments or transformations that occurred in different regions of the world at the time when Gandhiji was leading India's struggle for freedom